Under the visionary direction of Artistic Director Michelle Quenon, Ballet Chelsea's talented dancers bring the classic fairytale of Cinderella to life. This timeless story of hope, kindness, and the triumph of love over adversity will spellbind audiences of all ages. With breathtaking choreography, exquisite costumes, and a captivating musical score, this production promises to captivate hearts and inspire imaginations. Listen to a JTV interview with Mary Waldron, Costume Designer, and Michelle Quenon at this link to learn more about the production and, specifically, the costumes.

"We are overjoyed to bring the timeless tale of Cinderella to life on stage," said Michelle Quenon, Ballet Chelsea's Artistic Director. "This cherished narrative resonates with audiences of all ages, embodying themes of kindness, courage, and the enduring belief in the extraordinary. We have 60 talented dancers and a dedicated creative team, and we have crafted a production that promises to enchant and inspire."
