BALLET CHELSEA'S MAGICAL NUTCRACKER PERFORMANCE

Chelsea, MI – Ballet Chelsea is thrilled to continue a cherished tradition by presenting its 27th Annual Production of The Nutcracker, a beloved holiday classic that has captivated audiences for decades. This enchanting performance, steeped in history and tradition, will take place from December 13 to 15 at the Potter Center on the Jackson Community College campus, bringing festive magic to audiences of all ages.

Artistic Director Michelle Quenon leads this year's fresh and vibrant interpretation of The Nutcracker, promising to delight families and individuals alike. Audiences are invited to join Clara and her charming Nutcracker Prince as they embark on a captivating journey through the fantastical Land of Sweets. Accompanied by the Jackson Symphony Orchestra, the performance will feature Ballet Chelsea's dedicated students alongside talented professional artists, making it a truly unforgettable celebration of the holiday spirit.

"We are so excited to share this magical production with our community," says Artistic Director Michelle Quenon. "The Nutcracker has always been a holiday favorite, and this year, our talented dancers and musicians are ready to deliver a performance that will leave audiences spellbound."
