Chelsea Education Foundation Donors Stock School Library Shelves this Holiday Season!

Chelsea Education Foundation (CEF) held its second annual “Sip at Serendipity” Book Drive fundraiser at Serendipity Book Store on November 19. Donors enjoyed wine, courtesy of Withington's, and snacks while perusing the books requested by the Chelsea School District.

This book drive began in 2022 when Michelle Tuplin, owner of Serendipity Books, generously donated her Chelsea Community Foundation Ann Feeny Small Business Award to the Chelsea Education Foundation to support students with reading disabilities.

A photograph of three people standing in front of a wooden door. The man in the center, wearing a grey blazer and dark trousers, holds a small plaque that says "ZOO YORK". He is flanked by two women: one on the left in a black dress and one on the right in a mustard-colored jacket. The door behind them has "ZOO YORK" written on it in reverse. The setting appears to be the interior of the Zoo York store.

Each year, CEF receives requests from teachers for hundreds of books. Funds they collect help to ensure that students have access to the resources they need for their education. If you did not make it to the event, you can still help them reach their goal of $6,000 by donating at this link or stopping by Serendipity.

Chelsea Education Foundation's success in supporting the Chelsea School District is possible due to the tremendous support of local businesses that stepped up as Literacy Leader sponsors. Supporters include Chelsea Vision Care, Ann Arbor Pediatric Dentistry, Chelsea Milling Company, Clark Construction Company, Green Tree Pediatrics, Hardwood Solutions

Inc., La Jolla Fine Jewelry, Silver Maples of Chelsea, The Forehand Company, and Thompson's Pizza.

Chelsea Education Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that provides funding for a broad spectrum of educational activities benefiting the students of the Chelsea School District. Since 1990, $1.3 million in donations have been collected to support grants and scholarships throughout the District. Chelsea Education Foundation's mission is to enhance the District's educational experiences by financing projects beyond the District's resources and by providing scholarships to District Graduates.
