Discover Culinary Excellence at Heydlauff's Live Kitchen – Where Flavor Meets Innovation!

Chelsea, MI – May 2—Get ready to ignite your culinary passion at Heydlauff's Appliances! This event promises an unforgettable culinary experience in their Live Kitchen, spotlighting Wolf appliances that elevate home cooking to new heights.

Join them on Thursday, May 15, from 4:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., as they welcome Afrim Ramaxhiku, the head butcher for Grand River Breweries, The Manchester Market, and The Manchester Market Commissary, and Chef Mike Jacobson, Culinary Director, The Manchester Market.

During this unique event, these two Chefs will demonstrate the art of butchery and showcase how to prepare delicious recipes using premium Wolf appliances. Attendees will discover what makes these world-class appliances indispensable in the kitchen and engage with knowledgeable representatives about which equipment best suits their culinary lifestyle.

Chef Afrim brings a wealth of expertise and passion, providing high-quality meats and foods to restaurants across Michigan. After starting his culinary journey in Yugoslavia and honing his butchery skills in top kitchens throughout Europe, Afrim shares his knowledge and love for locally grown meats.

With an impressive 27 years in the culinary industry, Chef Mike has journeyed from humble beginnings as a server to leading kitchens with skill and vision. His dedication to the craft has earned him esteemed roles, including Executive Chef at Mitchell's Fish Market and Culinary Director at Bobcat Bonnie's.

"Heydlauff's Live Kitchen is not just about cooking; it's about transforming how you experience food," says Jake Heydlauff. "Join us to witness Afrim's mastery of butchery while exploring the powerful capabilities of Wolf appliances that can inspire your culinary creations."

Mark your calendars for the 2025 Chef Series season, which includes additional August 21 and November 13 events.
