The Kaleidoscope concert series, a beloved monthly event hosted by Silver Maples of Chelsea, is designed for the enjoyment of Chelsea area seniors. By attending and donating at this special fundraising concert, you'll be helping to bring more amazing performances to our community next year. Don't miss out—your support makes a difference!

These concerts are made possible through the generous support of community donors and Silver Maples residents. Without these donations, providing such enriching experiences for local seniors would not be possible. Before the pandemic, the series enjoyed the support of many community sponsors. Sponsorship benefits include recognition on promotional posters and public thanks at each concert, making it a rewarding way to support the senior community.

The Rhythm Society Orchestra is a 15-piece band that authentically recreates the sounds and sights of the big band era, featuring the swing music and pop vocal crooners of the time. Classic performances of Sinatra, Dorsey, Miller, Darin, Lunceford, Goodman, Shaw, and Cab Calloway come alive. Re-discover the great American songbook with the re-creations of the Rhythm Society Orchestra.
