Chelsea State Bank Surprises Dexter Senior Center with a $2,500 Donation

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2025, DEXTER, MI – Chelsea State Bank surprised Anna Pekrul and team at the Dexter Senior Center with a $2,500 donation on Tuesday as a continuation of the bank's 25th anniversary as Dexter's Community Bank.

"The journey for Dexter's new Senior Center is something we have been watching for some time, and we are thrilled for the members and the community," said Joanne Rau, President and CEO, Chelsea State Bank. "Senior centers are a vital component to any community, offering resources, combating isolation, and supporting seniors' health and well-being. To have a new dedicated space to call home away from home is something the community can be proud of, which is why we chose to celebrate their recent opening with a $2,500 donation."

"We're so thankful to Chelsea State Bank for believing in our mission and supporting older adults in our area," said Anna Pekrul, Executive Director, Dexter Senior Center. "Their generosity will allow us to offer more programs and create more opportunities for connection. We're grateful to partner with an institution that values community as much as we do."

Chelsea State Bank is celebrating investing in and supporting Dexter for 25 years! We are proud to be Dexter's Community Bank since 2000.
