

Dear Customers,

After careful consideration, I have decided that it is time to close the shop.

This decision is a deeply personal one. I have owned retail businesses, both online and brick-and-mortar, for 25 years—with the last 13 years spent right here in Chelsea at my shop, Lola (previously known as "The Attic Boutique").

It is time for a change of pace that will allow me to spend more time with my immediate and extended family. While I will miss having my business in town and seeing your familiar faces, I am looking forward to having a more flexible schedule and enjoying more quality time with my family during the summer and holiday seasons.

Thank you so much for your incredible support throughout the years and for allowing my business to grow and prosper. It has been an absolute pleasure and honor to be a merchant in the City of Chelsea. I ask that you please continue to support our fellow local businesses and help keep our downtown busy and vibrant.

If you would like to shop with us one last time and say goodbye, we will be hosting a closeout sale starting Tuesday, June 16th.

Again, thank you for everything, and we hope to see you at Lola one more time!

With gratitude,

Deborah Coy
