Silver Maples of Chelsea and Chelsea Senior Center Present the 2026 Kaleidoscope Fundraising Concert Featuring River Raisin Ragtime Revue

CHELSEA, Mich. — Silver Maples of Chelsea and the Chelsea Senior Center invite the community to an evening of music, nostalgia, and community spirit during the 2026 Kaleidoscope Fundraising Concert on Tuesday, August 18, at the Washington Street Education Center Auditorium.

The evening begins with a fundraising reception at 6:00 p.m., featuring refreshments and desserts, followed by a free concert at 7:00 p.m. by the acclaimed River Raisin Ragtime Revue.

Known throughout Michigan for bringing America's early popular music to life, the River Raisin Ragtime Revue performs an entertaining blend of ragtime, early jazz, Tin Pan Alley favorites, and classic dance music. Their lively performances combine outstanding musicianship with fascinating stories about the music and the era, creating an engaging experience that delights audiences of all ages.

The Kaleidoscope Concert Series is a beloved monthly tradition hosted by Silver Maples of Chelsea that provides free live performances for older adults throughout the Chelsea community. This special annual fundraising concert helps ensure the series continues to offer exceptional entertainment for residents and community members in the coming year.

Although admission is free, guests are encouraged to make a suggested donation of $25. Every contribution directly supports future Kaleidoscope concerts and helps keep quality live music accessible to local seniors.

The concert series is made possible through the generosity of Silver Maples residents, community donors, and local sponsors. Sponsorship opportunities are available for businesses and individuals who wish to support arts programming while receiving recognition throughout the concert season.
