

🎄 Christmas in July – Final Week 🎄

As July comes to a close, I'd like to thank everyone who has supported my Christmas in July campaign.

Throughout the month, 10% of every fine art photography purchase has been donated to Blue Star Service Dogs, a wonderful local organization that provides highly trained service dogs to veterans and first responders living with PTSD.

To help as many people as possible participate during this final week, I've reduced prices throughout my online gallery—no promo code is needed.

If you're unable to purchase artwork, I'd be grateful if you'd simply share this post. Helping more people discover Blue Star Service Dogs is a success in itself.

Thank you for supporting local artists, veterans, first responders, and a cause that truly makes a difference.
